

- I. We need to learn from the pattern of the Lord living a hidden life in His going up to the mountain privately to pray—Matt. 14:23; cf. Luke 6:12:
- A. The Lord did not remain in the issue of the miracle with the crowds (the miracle of feeding five thousand men, apart from women and children), but He went away from them privately to be with the Father on the mountain in prayer—Matt. 14:14-23:
 - The Lord compelled the disciples to leave Him in order that He might have more time to pray privately to the Father—Matt. 14:22-23.
 - He needed to pray privately to His Father who was in the heavens so that He might be one with the Father and have the Father with Him in whatever He did on earth for the establishing of the kingdom of the heavens; He did this not in the deserted place but on the mountain, leaving all the people, even His disciples, so that He might be alone to contact the Father.
 - B. We should treasure three phrases—TO BE WITH THE FATHER, ON THE MOUNTAIN, AND IN PRAYER:
 - To pray with others is good, but often we need to pray by ourselves; when we pray with others, we cannot enjoy the Lord as deeply as when we pray to the Lord privately.
 - Even the Lord Jesus told us that when we pray, we should shut our door privately and pray to the Father who sees in secret; then we have the sensation of how intimate He is to us and how close we are to Him—Matt. 6:6.
 - We have to learn to leave the crowds, our family, our friends, and the saints in the church to go to a higher level on a “high mountain”; we have to get to a higher level, separated from the crowd and the earthly things, to be with the Father privately and secretly to have intimate fellowship with Him.
- II. The principle of the kingdom people is that they live a hidden life, not performing their righteous deeds before men—deeds such as giving, praying, and fasting—Matt. 6:2-4,5-15,16-18:
- A. Regarding each of the three illustrations, the Lord used the word secret; our Father is in secret, and He sees in secret; the kingdom people, as children of the heavenly Father, must live in and care for the Father’s secret and hidden presence—Matt. 6:4,6,18.
 - B. The kingdom people, who live in an emptied and humbled spirit and walk in a pure and single heart under the heavenly ruling of the kingdom, are not allowed to do anything in the flesh for the praise of men but must do all things in the spirit for the pleasing of their heavenly Father—Matt. 5:3, 8.
 - C. The effect of doing our righteous deeds in secret is that the flesh and the self are killed; if people in society and even in degraded Christendom are not allowed to make a show of their good deeds, they will not do them; the self loves to be glorified, and the flesh loves to be gazed upon.
 - D. The saints who grow openly do not grow in a healthy way; we all need some secret growth in life, some secret experiences of Christ; we need to pray to the Lord, worship the Lord, contact the Lord, and fellowship with the Lord in a secret way.
 - E. We should pray much yet not let others know how much we pray; if we pray every day without telling others or letting them know about it, it means that we are healthy and that we are growing.
 - F. The kingdom people must have some experience of prayer in their private room, contacting their heavenly Father in secret, experiencing some secret enjoyment of the Father, and receiving some secret answer from Him—Matt. 6:6.
 - G. Anytime we exhibit ourselves in our righteous deeds, we are not healthy; such an exhibition greatly frustrates our growth in life.
 - H. Our human life loves to make a display, a public show, but God’s life is always hidden; a hypocrite is one who has an outward manifestation without having anything within.
 - I. We can never practice living a hidden life in secret in our natural life; it is possible only in the divine life, the life that does not enjoy making a show; if we are serious about being the kingdom people, we must learn to live by the hidden life of our Father.
 - J. The universe indicates that God is hidden, that God is secret; if we love others by the love of God, this love will always remain hidden.

III. “Surely You are a God who hides Himself, / O God of Israel, the Savior”—Isa. 45:15:

- A. Believers may know God as the almighty One, as the righteous One, as the One full of grace and compassion, but as the One who hides Himself, He is unknown to them.
- B. God does countless things in the midst of His people and countless things in their personal lives, yet He conceals Himself:
 - God likes concealment, but we like display; God does not crave outward manifestations, but we cannot be content without them.
 - God was obviously with Elijah on Mount Carmel, but when God withheld His manifest presence, Elijah could not bear it—1 Kings 19:9-18:
 - God knew that Elijah wanted Him to be a God who would manifest Himself; he had not realized that God is a God who hides Himself.
 - God was not in the great and strong wind, He was not in the earthquake, and He was not in the fire; instead, God spoke to Elijah in a “gentle, quiet voice”—1 King 19:12.
 - The fact that God spoke to Elijah in a gentle, quiet voice indicates that God was ushering Elijah into the New Testament age, in which God speaks to His people not by thundering but gently and quietly—cf. 1 John 2:27.
 - Elijah said to God that he was the only faithful one left, but God very gently answered Elijah by saying that He had reserved for Himself seven thousand men who had not bowed the knee to Baal—1 Kings 19:18; cf. Rom. 11:2-5.
 - Elijah had reckoned the situation only with what he could see, but God is a God who hides Himself; He had secretly reserved for Himself seven thousand overcomers who had not bowed the knee to Baal; God’s activity was so hidden that not even the prophet Elijah knew anything about it.
- C. The Scriptures reveal that God has the kind of temperament that dislikes ostentation; He likes to work secretly rather than openly—Matt. 17:1-9; John 20:14-17; Luke 24:13-37; John 20:24-29; Isa. 39:2-8:
 - “Whom having not seen, you love; into whom though not seeing Him at present, yet believing, you exult with joy that is unspeakable and full of glory”; it is a wonder and a mystery that the believers love One whom they have not seen—1 Pet. 1:8.
 - Since the resurrection of the Lord, the chief discipline for His followers has come along the line of knowing Him as a God who hides Himself.
 - Everything of God’s economy with Christ as its centrality and universality is not in the seen realm but in the unseen atmosphere and realm of faith—2 Cor. 4:13, 16-18; 5:7; Heb. 11:1; Eph. 3:17a; 1 Tim. 1:4b.

IV. Psalm 42:7 says, “Deep calls unto deep”:

- A. Others can respond deep within to only what issues from deep within us; anything that is not from the depths will never reach the depths of others.
- B. The kingdom life is a life in the depths, a life that can “take root downward and bear fruit upward”—Isa. 37:31; cf. Acts 6:7; 12:24; 19:20.
- C. Because we have been planted in Christ as the reality of the good land, we need to take time to absorb Him (especially in our times with Him in the morning):
 - Roots are the hidden life, whereas leaves are the manifest life; the trouble with many Christians is that, while there is much apparent life, there is very little secret life; in other words, there is the lack of a hidden life.
 - If all your experiences are manifested, then all your growth is upward; there is no downward growth; if this is the case, you are a person who has only leaves without root, and you are on shallow ground.
 - The Christian who parades all his virtues before men and who does not have anything in the depth of his being has no root; he will not be able to stand in the day of trial and temptation; may God work in us so that we can take root downward—Matt. 13:20-21; Luke 8:13.
- D. We need deep experiences of Christ like that of the apostle Paul—2 Cor. 12:1-4:
 - Paul was caught away to the third heaven and caught away into Paradise, but he did not divulge this experience until fourteen years later; Paul’s roots were deep beneath the soil.
 - If we want to have Paul’s work, then we need to have Paul’s “root”; if we want to have Paul’s outward conduct, then we need to have Paul’s inner life; if we want to have Paul’s manifest power, then we need to have Paul’s secret experience.
 - To be without root is to be without any hidden treasure; it is to be without any hidden life or hidden experiences; it is essential that some of our experiences remain covered; to uncover everything is to lose everything—cf. Isa. 39:2-8.
 - If our life has no depth, our superficial work will only affect other lives superficially; only “deep calls unto deep.”
- E. A pure and beautiful spiritual life is derived from inward, hidden, and uninterrupted fellowship with God; hence, “He will bud like the lily / And will send forth his roots like the trees of Lebanon”; this kind of life is capable of bearing much fruit—Hosea 14:5-7.
- F. In order to live a life in the depths, it is necessary to have direct and intimate fellowship with the Lord; Song of Songs 4:12 says, “A garden enclosed is my sister, my bride, / A spring shut up, a fountain sealed”:
 - At this point in her spiritual progress, the Lord’s loving seeker has become a garden for Christ’s private satisfaction.
 - She is not an open garden but an enclosed garden; all that she has is for her Beloved’s delight and for no one else.
 - If today’s believers would close up a little more and seal up tighter, their work would become more prevailing.
 - May the Lord grant us grace and do a deeper work in us through the cross so that we may strike deep roots and live a hidden life in the depths to fulfill God’s requirements and satisfy His heart.

I. We need to learn from the pattern of the Lord living a hidden life in His going up to the mountain privately to pray

- The Lord did not remain in the issue of the miracle of feeding five thousand men, He left all to be alone to contact the Father, prayed privately on the mountain to His Father in the heaven, be one with the Father and have the Father with Him in whatever He did on earth for the establishing of the kingdom of the heavens. We also need to pray by ourselves to the Lord so to enjoy Him more deeply than when we pray with others. The Lord Jesus told us to shut our door to pray to the Father privately who sees in secret; that we go to the "high mountain", apart from the crowd and earthly things to have intimate and private fellowship with the Father. [Matt. 14:23] And after He sent the crowds away, He went up to the mountain privately to pray. And when night fell, He was there alone. [Luke 6:12] And in these days He went out to the mountain to pray, and He spent the whole night in prayer to God.

II. The principle of the kingdom people is that they live a hidden life, not performing their righteous deeds before men—deeds such as giving, praying, and fasting

- The universe indicates that God is hidden and is secret; He sees in secret. The kingdom people as His children must live in and care for the Father's secret and hidden presence; live in an emptied and humbled spirit; walk in a pure and single heart under the heavenly ruling of the kingdom. We are not allowed to do anything in the flesh to exhibit ourselves for man's praise but do all things in the spirit for the pleasing of our heavenly Father. Doing our righteous deeds in secret kills the flesh and the self who loves to be gazed upon and be glorified. Growing openly is unhealthy and greatly frustrates our growth in life. We all need some secret growth and secret experiences of Christ; contact, pray, worship, fellowship, experience and enjoy our Father secretly and receive some secret answer from Him. God's life is always hidden; a hypocrite is one who has an outward manifestation without having anything within. We must learn to live by the hidden life of our Father to be kingdom people; if we love others by the love of God, this love will always remain hidden. [Matt. 6:1] But take care not to do your righteousness before men in order to be gazed at by them; otherwise, you have no reward with your Father who is in the heavens. [Matt. 6:3-4] ...when you give alms, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, so that your alms may be in secret; ...your Father who sees in secret will repay you. [Matt. 5:3] Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of the heavens. [Matt. 5:8] Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God. [Matt. 6:6] ...when you pray, enter into your private room, and shut your door and pray to your Father who is in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will repay you. [Matt. 6:18] So that you may not appear to men to be fasting, but to your Father who is in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will repay you.

III. "Surely You are a God who hides Himself, / O God of Israel, the Savior" [Isa. 45:15] Surely You are a God who hides Himself, O God of Israel, the Savior.

- Knowing the almighty, righteous and compassionate God as the One who hides Himself is unknown to believers. God conceals Himself as He does countless things in the midst and in the personal lives of His people, yet men like display and crave outward manifestations. Elijah wanted God to be one who would manifest Himself; he reckoned his situation only with what he could see and had not realized that God is a God who hides Himself. God was not in the great and strong wind, the earthquake, in the fire; instead, God spoke to Elijah in a "gentle, quiet voice", indicating that God was ushering Elijah into the New Testament age when God speaks to His people gently and quietly. God's activity was so hidden that not even the prophet Elijah knew anything about it. God dislikes ostentation and likes to work secretly rather than openly. Since Christ's resurrection, His followers has come along the line of knowing Him as a God who hides Himself. Everything of God's economy with Christ as its centrality and universality is not in the seen realm but in the unseen atmosphere and realm of faith. [1 Kings 19:12] And after the earthquake, a fire—Jehovah was not in the fire. And after the fire, a gentle, quiet voice. [2 Cor. 4:18] Because we do not regard the things which are seen but the things which are not seen; for the things which are seen are temporary, but the things which are not seen are eternal.

IV. Psalms 42:7 says, "Deep calls unto deep":

- Only what issues from deep within us can reach the depths of others. The kingdom life is a life in the depths that can "take root downward and bear fruit upward". Roots are the hidden life, whereas leaves are the manifest life. Having been planted in Christ as the reality of the good land, we need to take time to absorb Him (especially in our times with Him in the morning) to grow deeper, otherwise, we would have much apparent life with a lack of a hidden life. Not taking root downward means we have no ability to stand in the day of trial and temptation. We need deep experiences of Christ like that of the apostle Paul. His work and outward conduct manifested from his inner life; and his secret experience affected the depths of others. We need to close up more and seal up tighter for prevailing and not superficial work that only affect other lives superficially; only "deep calls unto deep." A pure, beautiful spiritual life is derived from inward, hidden, direct, intimate and uninterrupted fellowship with God. It buds like the lily, sends forth his roots like the trees of Lebanon and bears much fruit; it is an enclosed garden for Christ's private satisfaction only. May the Lord grant us grace and do a deeper work in us through the cross so that we may strike deep roots and live a hidden life in the depths to fulfill God's requirements and satisfy His heart.. [Psa. 42:7] Deep calls unto deep at the sound of Your water spouts;... [Isa. 37:31] And the remnant of those who have escaped of the house of Judah will again take root downward and bear fruit upward. [S.S. 4:12] A garden enclosed is my sister, my bride, A spring shut up, a fountain sealed.

A co-worker who is invited to speak somewhere may think that since he has been speaking for the Lord for many years, he knows how to speak. All of us need to drop this kind of attitude and realize that we are not the source. No blessing is of us. Regardless of how much we can do or how much we know what to do, we must realize that we need the Sender's blessing upon our doing by trusting in Him, not in ourselves.

The blessing comes only by our being one with the Lord and trusting in Him.
